

TOP 10 REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD INTERVIEW MR. CHANOS.

AUTHOR OF “SEIZE YOUR DESTINY” AND “MILLENNIAL SAMURAI”

1. Few things are more important to parents than their children, and today's youth face unprecedented challenges.
2. Over 40% of young adults, ages 18 to 36, live at home.
3. 40% of white males, and 50% of black males, are arrested by age 23.
4. Student debt now exceeds all credit card debt.
5. Over 40% of college graduates are unable to find jobs, after graduation, that require a college degree.
6. 43% of U.S. households are fatherless, and 80% of the adult prison population came from fatherless homes.
7. Single mothers are overwhelmed with daily challenges – paying the rent, feeding the kids, looking after elderly parents.
8. The world will undergo massive technological change over the next 30 years, creating unprecedented innovation, disruption and unemployment.
9. The vast majority of the American public, and their children, are unprepared for that change, and it will require massive changes in education and social services, to get them prepared.
10. Mr. Chanos has spent the past 30 years solving problems for high net worth individuals, including governors and billionaires. He's had incredible success in law, in business, and in real estate. And he has spent the last five years researching, writing and speaking about success and survival in the 21 st century. His new book, “Millennial Samurai: A Mindset for the 21 st Century”, provides the kind of guidance, insight, and direction, that can help people to seize the incredible opportunities and overcome the unprecedented challenges ahead. And he's available to advise your audience, on the remarkable future he sees - rapidly approaching.

This is a unique opportunity to provide incredible value to your audience, through a fascinating discussion about the technological tsunami that will redefine life as we know it.

This interview may be the most important on-air discussion you will have all year.